RAILEOADS AT WAR. Two Corporations Struggle for a Strip of

Disputed Territory. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. ] ZANESVILLE, December 17 .- A contest between the Baltimore and Ohio and the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley Railway occasioned some excitement here. The former put a large force of men at work moving part of their track over closer to the track of the lat-ter. The ground between them at this point is of disputed ownership, and the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley soon had a force at work tearing up the track and throwing it into the

The Baltimore and Ohio forces put the track The Baltimore and Ohio forces put the track down again and ran a train upon it, until an injunction could be secured restraining the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley road from heterfaring. During the time that the Baltimore and Ohio had a train on the disputed track there were one or two attempts of the Cincinnati and Muskingum people to pull the spikes holding the rails down, but these were met by the Baltimore and Ohio people, who shoveled cinders, with which the cars were filled, down upon their backs.

A WHITE ELEPHANT.

Captulu Johnston Receives a Live Joke From New Orleans.

The steamer Andes, which arrived yesterday norning from Cincinnati, brought a curiosity to this city in the shape of a well-grown alligator. It was consigned to Captain John B.
Johnston, who is connected with the firm of James A. Henderson & Co., and was sent to him by his friend, Captain Doddler, of New

The alligator is 51/2 feet long, and is probably the largest live one ever shipped to this city, It was brought up in a tank, 12x10 feet in size, and is on exhibition at Captain Johnston's office, No. 34 Water street, It is very voracious, and consumms several pounds of beef daily. The Captain thinks the joke is rather a serieus one. Oh! The Elegant Plane Received by Certificate 262, in the Everett Pinne Club Thin Week.

This member selects one of the most beautiful upright grand pianes ever brought to the city and only pays $1 per week. The price to members of the club is $75 less than the piano can be sold in the old time way of buying in small lots. Our club system allows us to contract for 350 pianos at one purchase. We have enough members to bring in the price in cash each week, hence they get the lowest cash price and have the privilege of $1 weekly payments. Our store is full of pianos set uside for Xmas, and we have added a new wareroom at 21 Federal at, to make room for our immense stock of This member selects one of the most beauat to make room for our immense stock of fine grade tilanos. We allow our members to take their pianos at any time on the same payments asked by other dealers, and give them the price obtained by the club con-tract. We will save you $75 in the price and give you the finest piano made. But Cora Wels, a dashing 17-cear-old blonde, of Keyser, W. Va., was arrested in this city last night on a charge o attempting to pass a $:0 counterfeit bill. She is the daughter of a prominent lawyer of Keyser.

She denies the knowledge of the bill being a counter eit, and is prostrated over her arrest. She will be given a hearing to-morrow. The best legal c unsel in the city has been employed to defend her. cest, so come now and make your selection. You will receive courteous attention, and if we cannot please you then we will not expect you to buy, Perfection. Elegance and Reliability This trio of words, conveying more than the ordinary significance, comprises the established motto at Mellor & Hoene's famous establishment—a house in its line the oldest in the city of Pittsburg, and unquestionably unexcelled for liberality and courteous attention to patrons. The principals are indefatigable in personal attention to visitors, and perforce of their wide experience in trade handle only such pianos and organs as are perfect in construction and which consequently afford unlimited satisfaction.

Among the pianos will be found the Hardman, Krakauer, Kimball and Harrington makes, all of them built on the most makes, all of them built on the most thorough acoustic and artistic principles, many being absolutely elaborate and ex-quisite in designs of case and finish. In or-gans they make a specialty of the Chase, Palace, Kimball and Chicago Cottage man-ufactures, which they have in styles and sizes suitable for churches, lecture rooms, halls and residences, each make sharing the highest awards for general excellence. Those contemplating the purchase of an instrument during the holidays will do well to call at once or send for catalogues and full particulars of course payment, plus to Messes. ticulars of easy payment plan to Messrs. Heliday Excursion Tickets on the Pennsylvania Railrond.

Pursuant to the usual policy of aiding its patrons in the interchange of social visits during the holidays, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, this season, place on sale at all its ticket offices excursion tickets to be sold between the various stations on the system at the rate of two cents per mile

The holiday excursion tickets will be sold from December 21, 1889, to January 1, 1890, inclusive, valid for return until January 4, 1890, inclusive.

This arrangement, however, does not apply to the sale of excursion tickets between New York and Philadelphia, but does apply be-tween Baltimore and Washington in either

Malaria Fever

"I was cured of one of the worst cases of ma laria fever by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and what this medicine did for me, it will do for others I was taken with the disease in 1886. I consulted the best doctors, but without any apparent benefit, and had to resign my situation as agent and operator for the Missouri Pacific Rail I had lost 66 pounds and spent over $300. At last I accidentally met a traveller for C. I. Hood & Co., who advised me to try Hood's Sarsapar-lla. I bought six bottles for $6 and after using two I thought I was no better. But I deter-mined to use up what Sarsaparilla I had: before the third bottle was gone I began to feel better and continued to mend till I took 18 bottles. when I more than gained my usual bealth and weight. I soon obtained another situation, and consider myself a well man." J. M. MILLER, Agent Wabash & Pacific Rallway, Lodge, Ill.
